Mr. LOUDENSLAGER, from the committee of conference, submitted the following

CONFERENCE REPORT.

[To accompany H. R. 22637.]

The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to House bill 22637 having met, after full and free conference have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective Houses as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment numbered 4, page 3, striking out lines 3 to 6, inclusive.

That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senator numbered 1, page 2, striking out lines 12 and 13 and agree to the same.

That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 2, page 2, striking out lines 14 to 17, inclusive, and agree to the same with an amendment as follows: The name of Albert E. Longman, late of Hospital Corps, United States Army, War with Spain.

That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 5, page 4, line 18, striking out "twenty" and inserting thirty; and agree to the same.

H. C. LOUDENSLAGER,

WM. H. DRAPER,

Managers on the part of the House.

CHARLES CURTIS,

HENRY E. BURNHAM,

BENJ. F. SHIVELY,

STATEMENT OF THE MANAGERS ON THE PART OF THE HOUSE.

The Senate recedes from its amendment No. 4, striking out the case of Biddy Lockwood (H. R. 7704), and agrees to the conclusions of the House that the death of the soldier was due to service.

The House recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate No. 1, striking out the case of Arthur T. Whipple (H. R. 6017), and agrees to the conclusion of the Senate that disability is hardly due to service.

The House recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate No. 2, striking out the case of William Canady (H. R. 6566) and Albert E. Longman (H. R. 6655), and agrees to the same with an amendment restoring the case of Albert E. Longman to the bill.

The House recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate No. 5, the case of John A. Rafter (H. R. 15985), in which the Senate raised the rate allowed from $20 to $30 per month.

H. C. LOUDENSLAGER,
WM. H. DRAPER,

Managers on the part of the House.
